OUR LADY MOTHER OF THE CHURCH CASTLEKNOCK, DUBLIN 15

2nd Sunday after Christmas 5th January 2020

In ancient Roman religion and myth, the god Janus, after whom the month of January takes its name, is the god of beginnings, gates, transitions, time, duality, doorways, passages, and endings. Janus is usually depicted as having two faces, since he looks both to the past as well as to the future.

The civil New Year which has just begun is a time when many people look both to the past and to the future. We reflect on the year that has ended and we look forward in hope to the year just beginning. There is often a desire in many people to improve and better themselves in a whole variety of ways. Hence we make New Year resolutions and commit to implementing them in our lives.

In the Scripture readings this Sunday we read the opening lines from St. John's Gospel. It literally starts with the phrase "In the beginning …". John goes on to give a synopsis of the theme which his Gospel develops, namely that "the Word was made flesh". God came to us in human form with the birth of Jesus, revealing God's love for humanity in a unique way and helping us to understand how we can be most fully human by loving one another with the same love as Jesus has shown for us.

As we begin this New Year let us resolve to live faithfully as disciples of Jesus. May we be touched by the love of God experienced in the Christmas event. May we make a renewed effort at living that love in all aspects of our lives this coming year.

Fr. Kieran Coghlan
